

Online Course

Family Engagement in Social Emotional Learning

Course for Administrators, PK & K educators

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

This short course is designed to enable participants to offer a family/parent workshop on supporting children's social and emotional (SEL) and approaches to play and learning (APL) at home. The course is founded on the MA Social & Emotional and Approaches to Play and Learning Standards. Participants will complete online exercises, readings, vignettes and review of concrete examples of how parents and caregivers can support children in social and emotional and approaches to play and learning. A training/manual/facilitator's guide will be included as a resource, so participants may offer a family/parent workshop.

This online course is completed in approximately 4 hours over two weeks – complete at your convenience during course dates. A certificate of completion will be provided after successful completion (including completing the course evaluation).

WHO: Administrators from Public Preschool, Kindergarten, and Community-Based Education and Care programs.

TOPIC: Providing training for families on supporting social and emotional and approaches to play and learning at home.

WHEN:
July 7- July 20, 2018

WHERE: Online

YOUR INSTRUCTOR:

Dr. Jody Figuerido will be your instructor for this course. She has extensive experience in the field of early childhood education and she teaches college classes, provides training, coaching, and program support for early childhood and out of school time programs. Read more about Dr. Figuerido at iepd.org.

HOW TO REGISTER:

Please register using

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0f4bacae2ca4fe3-online1>

For more information or how to register, please contact: j.figueroa@iepd.org or b.doubrava@iepd.org.

This project is funded by a Race-to-the-Top Early Learning Challenge Grant and developed in collaboration with:

